Dear Madam:

Replying to your favour of April 12th, the gold coins about which you write are worth a small premium - especially the $2.50 gold piece.

The Fugio cent is worth but little, but its value cannot be determined exactly without seeing the piece, on account of its condition. I have sent your letter to Mr. Thomas L. Elder, 9 East 35th Street, New York, who, if interested, will no doubt write to you.

Very truly yours,

Curator
